HOLY COMMUNION

On Sundays at 7.30 a. m., except on the first Sunday of the month, when it is celebrated after Morning Prayer at 10 30 a. m. On the greater festivals and Holy Days it is celebrated at 7.30 a. m., and when such are civil holidays, at 10.30 a. m. also.

MORNING PRAYER, on Sundays, at 10.30 a. m.

EVENING PRAYER, on Sundays, at 8 p. m.

SUNDAY SCHOOL, from 2.30 to 3.30 p. m.

HOLY BAPTISM will always be administered after Sunday School, but parents are urged to have their children baptized in the presence of the congregation at Morning Prayer or Evening Prayer. Children will not be baptized without sponsors who are members of a Christian Church.

Sexton, JOHN POTTER, 236 Catharine Street.

Missionary mite boxes will be distributed at the beginning of Lent to each member of the Sunday School, and they will be likewise at the disposal of all the adult members of the congregation who will consent to take them. The general offerings of Easter Day will be as usual for the support of the Parish, but the Lenten missionary offerings may be presented at the same time, either in the boxes or in envelopes marked "Missions."

Calendar for Lent, 1904

The Sunday Services will be as usual, except where a change is here indicated. Every Wednesday and Friday at 8 o'clock, p. m., there will be a short devotional service with a lecture. It is urged that a special effort be made to bring strangers to these services Some of them will be held in the Parish House and illustrated with the stereopticon. The subject of the lectures during the first half of Lent, both Sundays and weekdays, will be foreign Missions; for the second half of Lent, the Teachings of Jesus.

Feb. 17th. Ash Wednesday.

Holy Communion, 7.30 a. m. Evening Prayer, 8 p.m.

March 6th. Third Sunday in Lent.
